

How to Join the Discussion for CVR Virtual Journal Club

1. Login to VictimResearch.org. (Never logged in? Register first and check your spam folder.)
2. Once you're logged in, go the April 2020 Virtual Journal Club Session page.

April 2020 Virtual Journal Club Session

Welcome to the Center for Victim Research Virtual Journal Club for April 2020. (Learn more about the journal club and sign up to join us!)

Article

For this session, our theme is Cybervictimization and Virtual Victim Services. We read:

- "Digital poly-victimization: The increasing importance of online crime and harassment to the burden of victimization" by S. Hamby, Z. Blount, A. Smith, L. Jones, K. Mitchell, & E. Taylor. Journal of Trauma & Dissociation, 2018, vol. 19 no. 3, 382-398. (Abstract)

3. Read the discussion prompts and scroll to the bottom of the post to the Leave a Reply section. You will see "Logged in as [Your Name]" and a comment box.

Leave a Reply

Logged in as Your Name Log out?

Comment

Post Comment

4. Type your thoughts and questions into the comment box and click Post Comment. (CVR staff will review and approve comments before they appear under the post.)
5. Throughout the week, come back to the April 2020 Virtual Journal Club Session page and read other participants' comments. Click Reply to respond. (These replies will also be reviewed and approved before appearing on the post.)

One response to "CVR Virtual Journal Club"

1.  Laura Puls says:

April 13, 2020 at 12:12 pm (Edit)

In response to discussion prompt 1, I was most surprised by the finding that ...

Reply